For Immediate Release:

Wildhorse named 2010 Best of the Best “Gambling”

Pendleton — Wildhorse Resort and Casino has been named the 2010 recipient of the Best of the Best “Gambling” award from the Walla Walla Union-Bulletin.

In an online survey taken during the month of December on the newspapers website, Wildhorse Resort and Casino “won overwhelmingly” according to Donna Schenk of the Walla Walla Union-Bulletin. For their achievement, Wildhorse will be receiving a framed certificate to display at the resort.

“We are very excited to be chosen as the 2010 Best of the Best “Gambling” award recipient” said Gary George, CEO at Wildhorse. “We certainly appreciate the support of everyone in the greater Walla Walla area and hope that we can continue to be their destination of choice not only for gaming but for golf, dining and entertainment as well.” George also complimented the staff at Wildhorse. “I would like to thank our staff for their hard work and dedication to making Wildhorse “the Best of the Best.” They work very hard, year round, to ensure that guests have the best experience possible.”

Wildhorse Resort & Casino is the Pacific Northwest's highest paying casino, with a record $9.3 million slot jackpot. The Resort includes a 24-hour casino, hotel, RV Park, 18-hole golf course and Tribal museum. It is located just minutes off I-84 at Exit 216, four miles east of Pendleton.
