Free Admission First Friday.

Take advantage of free admission when you visit Tamástslíkt Cultural Institute on Friday, May 7. Then on May 14 experience a captivating exhibit entitled, "Forget-Me-Not: Mothers and Sons," by Seneca artist Marie Watt. The exhibit, which runs through Friday, July 9, consists of weblike constructions made of natural materials (stone, wool, cedar, cornhusks) to form (blankets, pillows, bridges) of portraits of soldiering sons and their mothers. Ms. Watt states, "Some of these women were mothers in the physical sense; others gave to our culture in other ways." After you've toured the museum, explore the museum store's impressive array of collectibles and exclusive Pendleton Woolen Mills blankets. Then satisfy your appetite with a delicious lunch or light fare at the Kinship Café. Open 9-5, closed Sunday. Kinship Café open Monday-Friday.
